

VETERANS SERVICE COMMISSION

Sean Fellows

As a Veterans Service Commissioner, Sean Fellows, a Captain in the Air Force Reserves, is actively involved with matters affecting our veterans from health care to Federal VA benefits. He was appointed by the Governor in 2006 to serve on the Southern Nevada Veterans Memorial Cemetery Advisory Committee, and because of his steadfast dedication to the committee, was recently elected unanimously as its chairman.

Capt. Fellows was born in Red Bank NJ and raised in Minnesota. He attended the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul MN on a full Reserve Officers' Training Corps (R.O.T.C.) scholarship and earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science. He also holds a Masters Degree from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, in the History of U.S. Foreign Policy. He was commissioned in the Air Force as an Intelligence Officer, and is a decorated veteran of both Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom, where he commanded Predator Unarmed Aerial Vehicle missions over Iraq and Afghanistan. He still serves as Reserve Flight Commander in the RED FLAG series of exercises. He is actively involved in numerous community organizations. His wife Katie is an attorney.
